85% of finance professionals want better tech for remote audits.*

Audit technology: How can tech meet your needs?

*Poll results from webinar audience of more than 1,100 finance and accounting professionals in June 2020.

What's your biggest concern about remote audits?

Concern	%
Strain on company personnel due to lack of in-person interactions	22%
"Over-auditing" due to lack of understanding of company risks	21%
Reduction in audit quality	20%
Delays in meeting reporting deadlines	17%
Lack of technological feasibility	6%
Unsure/prefer not to say	13%

87% HAVE CONCERNS
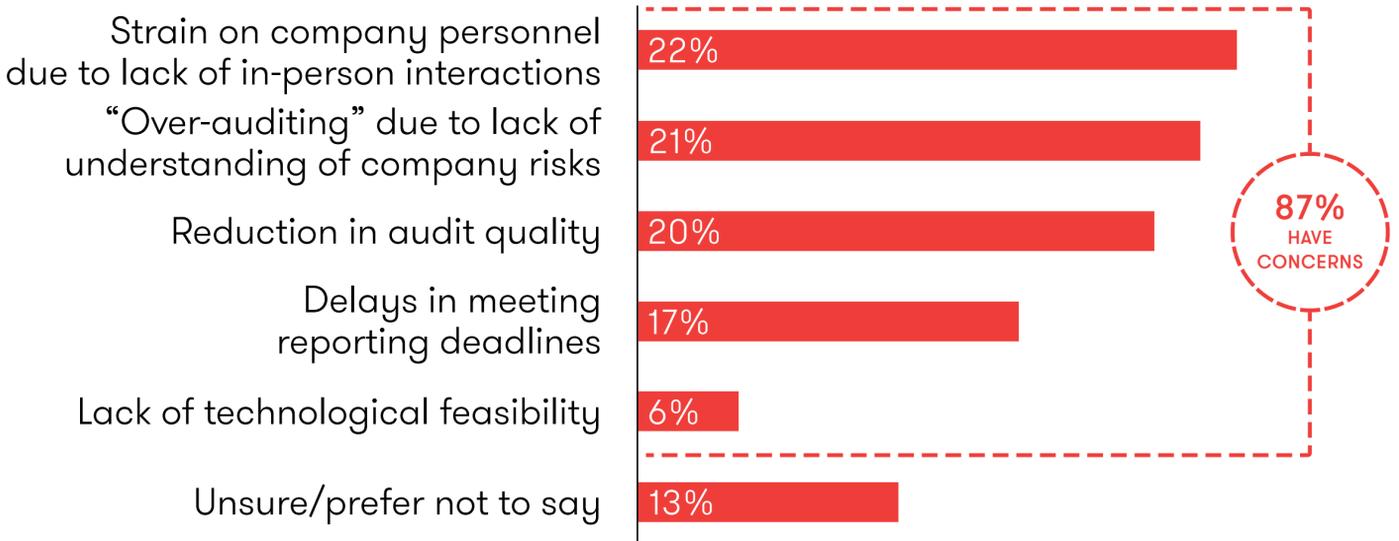

What tech do you want to add for remote audits?

Tech	%
An equal combination of analytics, automation and foundational tools	41%
Improved analytics	22%
Automations	13%
Cloud-based PBC managements, e-sign, or other foundational tools	8%
Unsure/prefer not to say	10%
None of the above	5%

85% WANT BETTER TECH
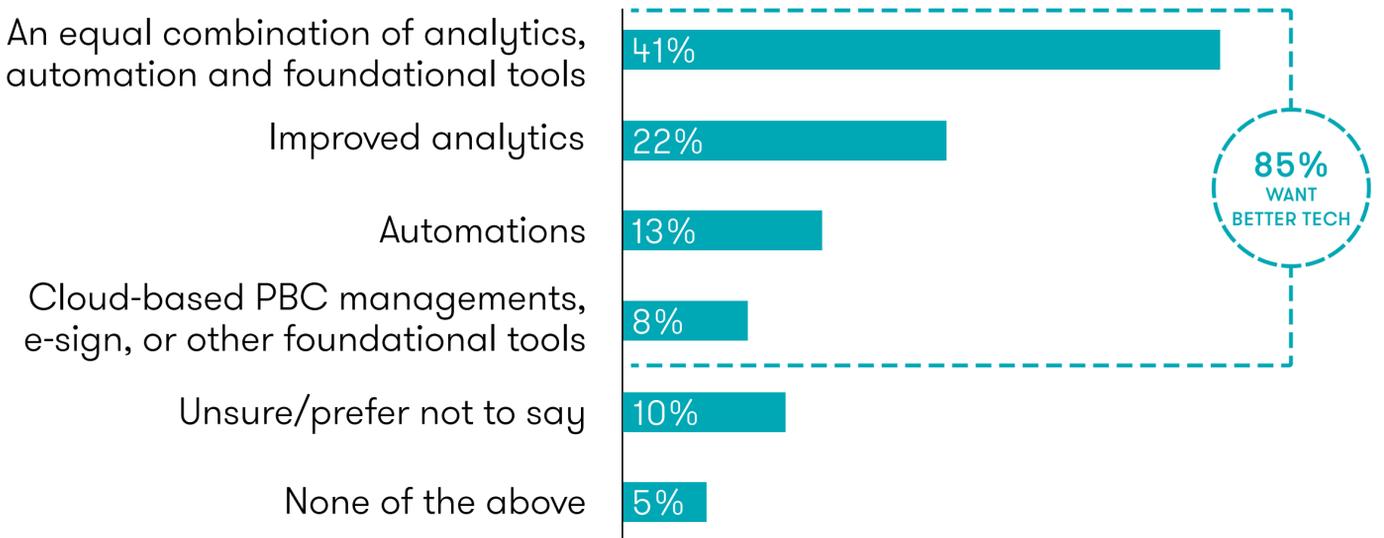

How can tech be your answer?

Get better quality, faster

Improve communication with collaborative tools to create positive remote experiences, reduce email, and drive real progress remotely

Minimize blind spots with data analytics for more precise risk assessment and insights with less burden

Reduce human error with automation
to streamline data acquisition and accelerate work

Work smarter with artificial intelligence to produce high-quality on-demand results and analyses with consistent value

Grant Thornton | Audit | Tax | Advisory | gt.com

Power on.